

MANIFESTO: HOUSING, A European challenge
A strategy on promoting access to housing in Europe

Given that BUILD EUROPE has formulated a strategic document on the importance of improving access to housing and ensuring a decent and modern standard of quality of life for European citizens,

Acknowledging the contribution and work of PSC – the Romanian Association of Employers in the Construction Industry, a member of BUILD EUROPE – in developing this strategy and promoting it to the relevant European fora,

Recognizing and valuing the emphasis the Government of Romania places on the well-being of the European citizens and on good governance, as manifested during the Presidency of the Council of the European Union,

The representatives of the European real estate industry have the honour and pleasure to hand over the strategic document to His Excellency Mr. George CIAMBA - Minister Delegate for European Affairs, trusting it will be a source of inspiration and a model for the new public policies to be developed in the housing sector.

Launched officially today, May 23, 2019, in Bucharest - Romania, on the occasion of the BUILD EUROPE Summit, in the presence of high representatives of the participating institutions
